STYLE POINTS

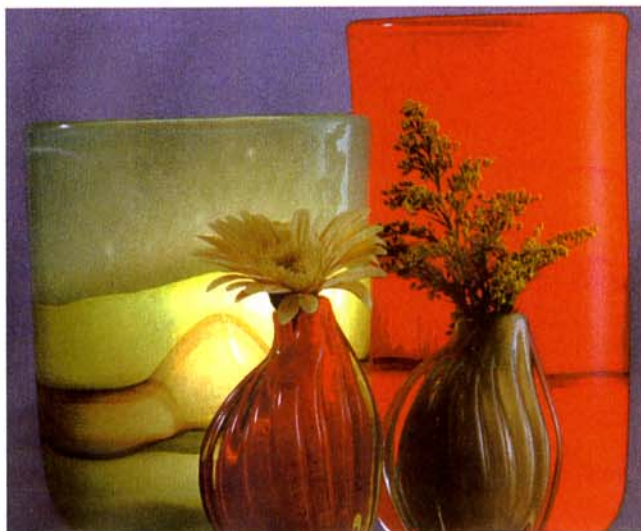

Bold and beautiful: Vibrant color and soft, undulating curves infuse glass with modern energy.

Twenty-eight-year-old Californian Caleb Siemon's United Glass Blowing studio produces Italian-style objets d'art like this electrically charged, sophisticated 11 Color vase. CIRCLE 581

DK Living experiments with form, function and application. As red and green vases surprise with unexpected shape, the straight-laced vessels behind them branch out with playful color. CIRCLE 592

Part of the new Fusion Z NEXT Collection, ribbon-like motion curls its way around the edges of the Blooms vessels. CIRCLE 562

Murano, Italy-based Romano Dona created the Toso centerpiece for Oggetti, bringing his contemporary edge to traditional Muranese techniques like filigrana and incalmo. CIRCLE 580

Reflexions Decor shocks the senses with this brilliant green art glass charger, hand-blown and signed by the artist. CIRCLE 563
